Oklahoma DUI Checklist

What to do today, this week, and before your court date. Print it. Check things off. One step at a time.

YOUR FIRST DEADLINE

30 days to act on your Impaired Driver Accountability Program (IDAP) request, or District Court appeal

30 calendar days from receiving the revocation notice from Service Oklahoma (not from the arrest). The Board of Tests must receive the IDAP request and the $150 program fee within that window. Oklahoma no longer holds administrative revocation hearings; the alternative is a petition to the district court in the county of arrest, and you cannot do both for the same arrest. The district court petition must be filed within 30 days after Service Oklahoma mails the notice of revocation (47 O.S. §6-211).

Who: Service Oklahoma (revocation orders) and the Board of Tests for Alcohol and Drug Influence (IDAP)

KEY FACTS

SUSPENSION, 1ST FAILED TEST

At least 180 days, running with IDAP, and until IDAP is completed

SUSPENSION, 1ST REFUSAL

At least 180 days, running with IDAP, and until IDAP is completed

1ST OFFENSE CHARGE

Misdemeanor (felony if aggravated DUI, including BAC 0.15 or higher)

1ST OFFENSE FINE

Up to $1,000

1ST OFFENSE JAIL

10 days to 1 year

INSURANCE FILING

Proof of insurance required; see your guide

PRIOR OFFENSES

Priors within 10 years count

IGNITION INTERLOCK

IDAP itself requires an approved ignition interlock. After a conviction, Oklahoma also requires interlock on vehicles you own or that are registered to you, including for aggravated DUI.

1 First 24 Hours

- [ ] REQUEST IDAP OR FILE A DISTRICT COURT APPEAL — YOU HAVE 30 DAYS FROM RECEIVING YOUR REVOCATION NOTICE FROM SERVICE OKLAHOMA (NOT FROM THE ARREST)

- [ ] Find your revocation notice and the officer's Impaired Driving Affidavit — the day you receive the Order of Revocation starts the 30-day clock
- [ ] Write down everything you remember about the arrest
- [ ] Understand your charge: DUI vs DWI vs APC, and whether it is aggravated (0.15+ BAC) — since November 1, 2025, aggravated DUI is a felony even on a first offense
- [ ] Do NOT post about your arrest on social media

2 First Week

- [ ] Consult with a DUI attorney
- [ ] Decide: IDAP enrollment or a district court appeal — Oklahoma no longer holds administrative hearings, and you cannot do both for the same arrest
- [ ] If IDAP: submit the application with a copy of the revocation order and the $150 fee — the Board of Tests must receive it within the 30 days
- [ ] Gather all arrest documents

3 First Month

- [ ] Install an approved ignition interlock — IDAP requires one
- [ ] Schedule a substance abuse assessment if required
- [ ] Begin DUI school or a treatment program
- [ ] Ask about a modified license if eligible

4 Court & Beyond

- [ ] Attend all court dates
- [ ] Complete the substance abuse evaluation
- [ ] Complete any required community service
- [ ] Finish IDAP — at least 180 days for a first revocation, ending with a violation-free period — then apply for reinstatement
